HOME TURF.

NEWMARKET MEETING.

The July Stakes Winner.
The "Horse" in the Daily Telegraph.

Newmarket itself was undoubtedly stimulated by the splendid rain last evening, June 29 and not for many weeks has there been such going as was afforded the morning after. Horses were at work on the turf which has been closed owing to the hardness of the ground, and they showed their relief of it by the way they single out freely and well. Among such I noticed China Cock and King Priam, while Jamieson went with race dash in the company of San Stefano. I much regret that Mr. J. B. Joel's fine stable looks like being seriously upset by an epidemic of coughing similar to that experienced about Ascot time three years ago, the effect of which was, to lay low practically every horse in the stable. The present trouble may be said to date from the last meeting, when the two-year-old filly, Telephone Girl, was most unexpectedly beaten. No doubt she had illness on her then which would account for her defeat. She was bad when she got back to Wantage, and, though every precaution was taken, others in the stable caught the trouble. King's Joker was to have made what would probably have been a winning debut for the July Stakes today, but he started coughing just before being despatched to Newmarket. Two other young horses, Syrian and Grassland, actually arrived here yesterday, when they showed the symptoms. Of course, they have not run, and, indeed, were sent home this morning. As a precaution, Black Jester, who would not have travelled until Wednesday to keep his engagement in the Princess of Wales Stakes on Thursday, was brought to Newmarket yesterday, along with Golden Sun, who is engaged in a race on Friday, Bright, and Radiant. Morton would have acted this morning, as the Black Jester unless he had been felled, as the champion four-year-old does not do well away from home. All the four seemed highly strung when brought out for exercise this morning. Colonel Hall Walker's Tillywhim broke down so badly when competing for the Ditch Stakes at the last meeting that she is still here, her injuries including a split pastern. I firmly believe this rather small, but beautiful daughter of Minor would have won the race which Star Hawk secured by a narrow margin from All Day.

DANNY MAHER PRESENT.
A very prominent person on the course this afternoon was Danny Maher, whom there has been no more famous jockey in modern times. Illness sent him to South Africa, and the beneficial effects of the dry climate and life in this home, where he is so anxiously welcomed. He had to undergo an extraordinary amount of cordial greeting to-day and listen to congratulations on the improved state of his health. He is looking wonderfully well, and though he and his wife purpose returning to South Africa in September or October next, it is the wish of all that he may in time be, so absolutely, restored as to be able to resume a brilliant riding career.

The rain had greatly improved the going on the July Course, but it had not cooled the atmosphere, which was close and oppressive. Prevoyant won the Trial Selling Plate for the simple reason that he represented much better class. It was in his favour that the race finished at the winning post situated at the foot of the hill. As a result he made a one-horse race of the affair, nothing else having any chance with him at any period. He had shown a stormy reluctance to leave his companion, which is a good trait, and travels with him, and for some time he resisted Bullock's efforts to get into the saddle. Happily, however, his racing capacity was a model of what it should be. No one wanted this freedom of a racehorse, and he was, therefore, passed out of the ring without eliciting a bid. Joy Wheel

The American Press states that Herr Gerhardt, who was given a safe conduct in order to inform Berlin of the state of the German army, was really Meyer, Chief of the German Army Supplies Department, who visited the States on a spying and buying mission.

The Rotterdam correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph" confirms the suspicion of the British "newspapers" that the Germans are using explosive bullets. He states that 625 German machine guns sent to "Italy" were equipped with explosive ammunition.

"For the Blood is the Life"

YOUR BLOOD WANTS PURIFYING.

IF YOU are troubled with Eczema, Boils, Sores, or Eruptions of any kind continually bursting through the skin

IF YOU have that constant itching and inflammation of the Piles.

All these are sure signs of clogging blood impurity, calling for immediate treatment through the blood. We don't waste your time and money on useless lotions and ointments, which cannot get below the surface of the skin. What you want and what you must have is a medicine that will get right to the root of your trouble, a medicine that will thoroughly free the blood of its poison, and so make it pure and healthy.

The True Value of CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE is certified by a most remarkable collection of uncorroborated testimonies from grateful patients of all classes—patients who have been cured after doctors and hospitals have given them up as incurable. It is a medicine that has been used after trying many other treatments without success—patients who not only have been cured of their particular skin or blood complaint, from which they were suffering, but also, have found great improvement in their general health. stayed on better than any other to win the Lode Plate, his starting price being a surprisingly long time. It was probably due to the strong support accorded Sam Lubinski, who passed once again that he is not even a moderate horse. Rather Holder, who won the Hans Park Handicap, has been successful this season on a resuscitated scale. After being very unlucky at Lincoln in the first week of the season, he made ample amends, and this was quite a handsome victory. His run must surely be to meet Mr. Ronald, who pulled in most surprising fashion after appearing to be well beaten. There was a bit of a gap between the second and Fair Trader, who headed the others. Lord Annandale ran well, and might have won at seven furlongs. Monchette could not stay, though it was stamina that distinguished her when winning races in Mr. Tanner's ownership.

THE JULY STAKES for two-year-olds was quite an interesting affair, and brought out several highly-bred and handsome horses. Fagaro, who won for Mr. Neumann, lost a little ground at the start, which adds to the merits of his performance. He galloped like a good one, and, moreover, is bred and built like one. He is a brown, thick-set and muscular son of Sandringham, his dam being a well-known winner for Mr. Neumann in her day. She was the mare that brought off a 31 to 1 chance by winning the Jubilee Stakes, and incidentally beating Merry Methodism, on whom there was particularly heavy wagering. Larrairie was thought to be back to her Spring form, and there is no doubt that she was much fancied, but she did not have both second and not Roi d'Espagne swerved most violently, close home. Many lands, who ran for Colonel Hall Walker, is a handsome filly of much promise. Polydemon ran extraordinarily badly. His jockey ran his whip up a long way from home, and no one was more surprised at the poor show than his trainer. His Majesty ran an extremely good-looking job by Sunstar; he did not perform as well as I had hoped after seeing him in the paddock, but he is one that wants some time.

Sir William Nelson was present to see his colt, Clydeside. He just scrambled to the post for Lord Derby, has evidently turned round. She refused to enter to the post until a policeman's stick was brought up to demonstrate by persuasion the error of her ways. Donoghue won the Stewards' Plate on Strathgilly, who carried Sir Ernest Cochrane's colours. This was a pretty race between the winner and the placed horse. It was an event for horses that had not won a race value £160, or collectively, value £200. They were, therefore, not a particularly brilliant lot. After two failures Mr. Barton's stable hit the mark for the Apprentice's Race, Prepaid winning cleverly from Sprint in Mr. Kennedy Jones's colours.

IVANGOROD REPORTED OCCUPIED.

London, Aug. 6, 12.15 p.m.
A telegram from Amsterdam states that a Vienna communiqué says that Ivangorod has been occupied.

THE COMMONWEALTH'S DETERMINATION.

London, August 6.
A Melbourne telegram says that Mr. Hughes, the Attorney-General, declared in a speech that the Commonwealth would pursue unflinchingly the policy of destroying German influence wherever it existed, and especially the German world-wide hold upon the metal industry.

ANATOLIAN COAST BOMBARDED.

London, August 6.
A Paris communiqué says that a French battleship and two cruisers, accompanied by destroyers and mine-sweepers and an aeroplane ship, bombarded Sighajik and Satalava, on the coast of Anatolia, on Tuesday and Wednesday, destroying the Customs and the fortifications. A cruiser destroyed the village of Spolia, which was an enemy submarine base.

GERMAN SUBMARINE'S PIRACY.

London, August 6.
The Admiralty announced that six merchantmen and ten fishing-boats were sunk during the week ending the 4th inst.

BRITISH STEAMERS SUNK.

London, August 6.
The Liverpool steamer Portia has been sunk. The crew of 14 were saved.
The British steamer Costello has also been sunk. One man was drowned, and one is missing.

THE SPY LINCOLN ARRESTED.

London, August 6.
An ex-Member of Parliament for Dartington, Triborough Lincoln, who on the 12th June published various statements in New York declaring that he had been active as a German spy while in London during the war, has been arrested in New York and charged with forgery in Great Britain. His extradition will be asked for.

AMERICA AND THE BRITISH BLOCKADE.

Washington, August 5.
The officials are apparently willing, ultimately, to submit the questions involved in the British blockade to arbitration. The Government is preparing a protest on the subject of the "Dacia" and will make it a test case of the right of a neutral Power to grant registry to a belligerent-owned merchantman.

Germany's latest Note is anything but in its refusal to agree that the sinking of the "William P. Fry" violated American rights under the Prussian-American Treaty.

ECONOMISING GOLD COIN.

London, August 6.
The Official Press Bureau emphasises the importance of economy in the use of gold coin, and urges payment in notes whenever possible, and so strengthen the gold reserves for exchange purposes. The public are requested to pay their gold into the Post Office banks and use notes.

GENERAL BOTHA'S WELCOME HOME.

WHAT THE KAISER PROMISED.

London, August 6.
General Botha and General Smuts have arrived at Johannesburg, where they were received with immense enthusiasm.

General Botha, in a speech, said his journey to Capetown, via Pretoria, on his return from the front was a revelation to him. In every town and village he had been met by large crowds and welcomed by Dutch speakers, showing that 90 per cent. of the population fully endorsed and appreciated what had been done to fulfil the request of the Imperial Government. He had said originally that he was not going to South-West Africa with the object of land-grabbing, but his attitude was considerably altered owing to a telegram from the Kaiser, saying:

"I shall not only recognise the independence of South Africa, but even guarantee it, provided a rebellion is started immediately."
General Botha said that in this telegram it was possible to detect the German desire to possess the Union of South Africa. For that reason he felt it was impossible to return the territory to the Germans. Were it returned, all difficulties would arise. All the serious trouble in South Africa had been due to German intrigue. Moreover, the German native policy was a source of danger to the Union.

"THE FRUIT OF LIBERTY."

London, August 6.
Mr. John Redmond, M.P., leader of the Irish Nationalist Party, has received a telegram from General Botha thanking him for his congratulations, and saying: "I entirely endorse your view. This victory is the fruit of the policy of liberty and the recognition of national rights in this part of the British Empire."

BRITISH PATROL CRUISERS' ARDUOUS WORK.

Honours For Their Officers And Men.

London, Aug. 5.
Officers and men of patrol cruisers have been honoured. To-night's Gazette announces the awards of the following decorations:—
Distinguished Service Order:—Captains H. Harcourt, G. Trowley, H. Edwards, Commander D. Ostrum, Lieut. Commanders F. Main, H. P. B. Smith and S. Bacon, Chief Engineers R. Wilson, W. Rowe, and E. Dixon.

Eight Distinguished Service Crosses and 34 medals have also been awarded. The Commander of the Home Fleet speaks in the highest terms of the patrol cruiser's arduous task, especially in the winter months, in exceptionally bad weather. They had suffered severe losses, and both officers and men had been continually exposed to the dangers of mines and submarines.

The Distinguished Service Order has been awarded to Lieut. Commander H. D. Edwards and Distinguished Service Crosses to Lieut. I. Tower, for conspicuous bravery and coolness while in charge of a Naval gun in Belgium, and to Sub-Lieut. A. Casswell, for, while in charge of a Naval gun in Belgium, removing ammunition from a burning building under heavy and well-directed fire.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

GERMANS LOSE HEAVILY.

London, Aug. 6, 12.50 a.m.
A communiqué says:—There was moderate artillery activity in the West. There were fights with bombs in Argonne, and very desperate actions in the Vosges on the heights dominating the Foch. The enemy captured a block-house, but was immediately driven out by a counter-attack. Our curtain of shrapnel inflicted the heaviest losses on the Germans.

CONSTANTINOPLE PANIC-STRIKEN BY BRITISH SUBMARINES.

London, Aug. 6.
Correspondence published at Athens says:—Constantinople is panic-stricken as the result of the activities of British submarines. It describes the torpedoing of the Mytilene, mentioned in the Admiralty communiqué of June 27th, and says the steamer was sunk, and a pier destroyed. Two Turkish gunboats were attacked on 6th July. The correspondent says one of the Golden Horn sinking.

THE DAWN OF A BETTER DAY FOR RUSSIA.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE'S PREDICTION.

London, August 5.
Mr. Lloyd George, addressing a meeting of ten thousand persons at Bangor, said he had no anxiety as to the ultimate issue of this terrible conflict. (Cheers.) "The dark clouds in the East I view with anxiety but not dread. I see a ray of hope on the dark horizon—the regeneration of the great people of Russia. Our enemies do not understand that their mighty cannonading and hammering are shattering the rusty bars fettering the souls of the Russians. (Great cheering.) Behind Warsaw the Russian people are shaking themselves free of the stifling dross. Their mighty limbs are preparing with a new spirit and a new hope for the new land. The Austrians and Prussians to-day are doing for Russia what their ancestors did for France: they are hammering a word which will destroy them. (Loud cheers.) They are freeing Russia. Let them beware what happens. I have no fear of the end of the war—none. (Cheers.) But that it is our duty to put forth our utmost efforts becomes clearer and clearer every day."

ANNIVERSARY OF WAR.

Celebrated In Overseas Dominions.

London, August 5.
Telegrams state that most impressive services were held throughout Canada in the Churches of all denominations on the occasion of the anniversary of the war. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia attended a service in Ottawa. The various cities passed resolutions pledging assistance to the Imperial Government in every way.

At a great and enthusiastic meeting in the Town Hall at Melbourne the citizens affirmed their indelible determination to continue the war to a victorious end. Patriotic speeches were greeted with ovations by the huge audience. The Russian Consul was warmly cheered.

The Commonwealth Parliament declared its loyalty to the King, and offered the Motherland "the last man and the last shilling." The State Parliament passed a similar resolution. Everywhere the National Anthem was sung. All work in the Commonwealth was suspended for five minutes to celebrate the day, and the stoppage of traffic was followed by a pandemonium of bells, steam whistles, the singing of the National Anthem, and cheering. Members of the new New Zealand Ministry made stirring speeches at Wellington. There was tremendous enthusiasm.

CROWN PRINCE'S ARMY.

Best Troops Slaughtered In Argonne.

London, Aug. 6.
The Crown Prince has been using up his best troops in abortive attacks in Argonne where there has been terrible fighting in the woods, the Germans vainly using poison gas and liquid fire. The Germans suffered great losses from the terrific fire of the French guns.

FRENCH INFANTRY OUTCLASS GERMANS.

London, Aug. 6.
The features of the recent French successes at Bapaume, where 900 German prisoners were taken, was the very great efficiency of the French infantry, who outclassed the Germans. After one German attack alone over 100 German bodies were picked up on the slopes of the hill, the French only losing four killed and 25 wounded.

ON THE EASTERN FRONT.

"BRAVE AND DESPERATE" RUSSIAN ATTACKS.

London, August 5.
A Berlin communiqué says that the German Cavalry has been fighting between the Narva and the Bug. The communiqué speaks of "brave and desperate counter-attacks by the Russians," especially eastward of Roshan. The Germans claim to have taken 4,000 prisoners. The situation at Ivangorod is unchanged. The communiqué makes it evident that General Von Mackensen has not recovered from the severe check northward of Cholm. It concludes:—"Cavalry has reached Vladimir, south-westward of Kovel," indicating that the Russians have taken up new lines at Kovel.

WHY WARSAW FORTS WERE EVACUATED.

London, August 6.
Why the Russians evacuated the forts of Warsaw and Ivangorod is explained in a Petrograd communiqué, in reply to a recent Austrian communiqué, which stated that the capture by Transylvanians of eight positions with casemates below Ivangorod was the "most glorious day in Austrian history." The Russian communiqué says that the Ivangorod forts were constructed almost entirely of brick, in nowise corresponding with modern requirements. The enemy attacks in October were repulsed not by the forts but by field positions in front of them. All the stores in Ivangorod were withdrawn most timely and methodically in view of the impossibility of its withstanding siege. Our rearwards along a line of field-works checked the enemy for some days, in conformity with the general strategic plan, without a desperate action, and were withdrawn on the 4th inst. to the right bank of the Vistula, also in conformity with the general plan, after blowing up the concrete bases supporting the brick casemates and destroying bridges.

NUMEROUS LOCAL SUCCESSES ASSIST RETIREMENT.

London, August 5.
The latest Petrograd communiqué does not mention the fall of Warsaw, reported in the German communiqué. It says that south of the Blonie Road and west of the City the Russians on the 4th repulsed German attacks. The enemy, who lost enormously, advanced close to the wire entanglements, where he was stopped by the Russian fire.

The communiqué adds:—The Russians in the Ivangorod district crossed unmolested to the right bank of the Vistula, blowing up the bridges behind them.

The Russians between the Vistula and the Bug on the evening of the 3rd inst. repulsed the Germans, who lost enormously.

These local successes at numerous points enabled the Russians on the same night to occupy unmolested a new and more advantageous front on the left bank of the Bug.

The Germans on the Narva front attacked in the direction of Lomza and from the front Ostrolenka-Roshan took the offensive with considerable forces on the roads towards Ostrow.

RETIREMENT TO NEW FRONT.

London, August 6.
It is officially announced in Petrograd that in consequence of the conditions of the general situation our troops covering Warsaw on the west were ordered to retire to the right bank of the Vistula, and retreated at 5 o'clock in the morning of the 5th inst. unmolested, towards the new front assigned to them, blowing up all the bridges across the Vistula.

AN IDEAL ANTISEPTIC DISCOVERED.

London, August 5.
Two French scientists, says a Paris telegram, have made a great discovery, viz., an ideal antiseptic for destroying septicaemia in wounds without damaging the tissues. The French Government, in co-operation with the Rockefeller Institute, have established a huge hospital at Compiègne, where untiring research has been carried on. The discovery is a preparation of hypochlorite of lime with boric acid as preservative and carrier of lime to counter-act acidity. Professor Landouzy said the Academy of Sciences that the new preparation applied to the most frightful wounds and it nullified their aspect within a week in a manner unknown to any antiseptic processes. Cases of gangrene had been prevented from the very outset. Indeed, if the new antiseptic be applied in time infection in wounds might henceforth be considered impossible.
